Why It Was Defeated by the Democrats. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Nov. 2.-Publicity is being given by Republicans to a campaign cir-cular charging that the Democrats de-Yeated the passage by the House of an anti-cular charging that the Democrats defeated the passage by the House of an autitust amendment to the Consitution.

The circular states that 148 Regulations voted for the amendment, but neglects to add that six Democrats—Messrs, Campbell, Naphen, Newlands, Scudder, Sibley and Theyer-also voted for it. It is pointed out that 120 Democrats voted against the resolution, but nothing is said of the votes of Messrs. Loud and McCall, which were also cast in the negative.

In fact, their names are omitted from the list of those voting in the negative as given in the circular. Nor does the circular say that Representative Daly of New Jersey, a Democrat, was paired in the affirmative, and Representative Mann of Hilineis, a Republican, was paired in the negative. Finally, nothing is said of the fact that Representatives Boutelle, Landis, Driscell and White, all Republicans, were absent when the vote was taken, and all were unpaired. A prominent Democrat said to-day:

"Truly the Democrats did defeat this resolution, the victousness of which was say ceeded only by its absurding. They voted against it on two grounds—that it was defeated by Democrats, votes, and the party is broud of it, for a more contemption by the States.

"The Republicans deny the first assertion; they have never dealed the second, it was defeated by Democrats, votes, and the party is broud of it, for a more contemption campaign trick was never attempted by the Republican party. In fact, so ridicalence was their attitude that if any axense of rotrat had been left upon to them of your day and their campaign thunder was silenced by the great their campaign thunder was silenced by the press."
